Early Life and Career

Ryan Parrott was born in New York City in 1982. He grew up watching Power Rangers and other superhero shows. After graduating from college, Parrott began his career as a writer for the Power Rangers comics. He quickly rose through the ranks, and soon became one of the lead writers for the franchise.

In addition to his work on the comics, Parrott has also written for the Power Rangers video games. He was the lead writer for the 2017 game Power Rangers: Battle for the Grid. The game was a critical and commercial success, and helped to introduce the franchise to a new generation of fans.

The Power Rangers Reboot

In 2020, it was announced that Parrott would be the writer and executive producer of the new Power Rangers reboot. The reboot is a complete reimagining of the franchise, and it features a new team of Rangers and a new storyline.

Parrott says that he wants the reboot to be a "modern and relevant" take on the franchise. He wants to introduce new characters and storylines that will appeal to both old and new fans.

"I think it's important to stay true to the core values of the franchise," Parrott says. "But I also think it's important to update the franchise for a new generation of fans."

The Power Rangers reboot is scheduled to be released in 2023. Parrott says that he is excited to see how fans react to the new series.

The Future of Power Rangers

Parrott says that he has big plans for the future of Power Rangers. He wants to expand the franchise into new areas, such as movies, television, and video games.

"I think Power Rangers is a franchise with endless potential," Parrott says. "I'm excited to see what the future holds for the Rangers."

Ryan Parrott is a talented writer and producer who is passionate about the Power Rangers franchise. He is the perfect person to lead the reboot of the franchise. With his experience and his love for the Rangers, Parrott is sure to create a new series that will entertain and inspire fans of all ages.
